Penguin Random House celebrating 10 years with winter gala

NEW YORK — Penguin Random House LLC. invites all readers to its annual winter gala on Dec. 5 to celebrate 10 years since the merger of Penguin and Random House. This year's theme is romance, so be prepared for a night full of love, adventure and amazing books. Guests will receive exclusive deals on 2024 Penguin Random House releases.

Celebrating 10 years, Penguin Random House is excited to wrap up 2023 and welcome 2024, and all the new books it will bring with its annual winter gala. The gala will be held at the Rainbow Room, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112, from 6-9 p.m. The event will include exclusive deals for guests on new 2024 releases and special appearances from top-rated romance authors.

"This gala is one of our most anticipated events of the year," said CEO Nihar Malaviya. "We see guests come from all over the world, excited for a fun night benefitting a good cause."

All proceeds collected will be donated to the nonprofit organization, First Book. Guests will receive exclusive deals on 2024 Penguin Random House releases by using the promo code provided with the purchase of a ticket.

The gala will give guests the opportunity to check out exclusive first looks, mingle with other booklovers and meet some of their favorite authors in the romance scene.

"I was so excited to be asked to be one of this year's special guests," said Ali Hazelwood, author of "Love, Theoretically." "My readers mean the world to me, and this is an opportunity I couldn't pass up."

Penguin Random House has made this gala an annual tradition to show customers its appreciation for their support. Readers are essential to the success of the company, and it is the company's goal to continue to give back to the reader community in the most fun way possible.
